题型特点	设问方式
词句猜测题着重考查利用同义或反义关系、构词法、语法和语篇文脉等理解生词的能力。主要通过以下两点进行考查： (1)要求根据阅读材料，结合学生应有的常识和经验判断生词、词组或熟词在特定语境中的含义以及一些句子的意思； (2)代词指代题也是词句猜测的常考类型。	① What do the underlined word“...” mean in Paragraph ...？ ②What does “...” underlined in Paragraph ...refer to？ ③Which of the following words can take the place of the word “...” in Paragraph ...？ ④What does the underlined sentence in Paragraph ... suggest？

用活 4 大猜测词义技法

为做好词义猜测题，要学会“顺藤摸瓜”，通过构词法、语法、定义、同位、对比、因果、常识和上下文等线索确定词义。词义猜测题不仅要求具备一定构词法，而且也要求对上下文具有比较全面的理解。做词义猜测题时，应注意画线生词后面的定语从句、同位语从句。定语从句、同位语从句通常用来解释生词的意义。另外，还要注意生词后的标点符号，如逗号、破折号、引号、括号都可用于提示词意。

下面介绍 4 种行之有效的猜词技法，希望对学生提高阅读理解中词义猜测题的解题能力有所帮助。

技法(一) 利用上下文线索猜测词义

类型 1 定义 作者有时会通过给某些词汇下定义来帮助读者理解词义，尤其是在一些科普类、社科类以及与专业内容相关的文章中。此时，常使用的信号词汇有 i.e、 is、 are、 is/are called、 mean、 refer to、 known as 等。

【典例】 Southbank, at an eastern bend in the Thames, is the center of British skateboarding, where the continuous crashing of skateboards left your head ringing.I loved it.I soon made friends with the local skaters.We spoke our own language.And my favorite: Safe.Safe meant cool.It meant hello.It meant don't worry about it.Once, when trying a certain trick on the beam (横杆), I fell onto the stones, damaging a nerve in my hand, and Toby came over, helping me up: Safe, man. Safe.A few minutes later, when I landed the trick, my friends beat their boards loud, shouting: “Safe! Safe! Safe !” And that's what mattered — landing tricks, being a good skater. 29.What do the underlined words “Safe! Safe! Safe !” probably mean ? A. Be careful ! B. Well done ! C.No way! D. Don't worry !	解析 根据选段中的 And my favorite: Safe. Safe meant cool.可知，作者将 Safe 定义为 cool，即“出色的”；同时结合下文可知，在作者成功完成了一次滑板动作后，同伴们都大喊 Safe! Safe! Safe !来表示祝贺或鼓励作者，夸作者“做得好”。 自主解答 ____
类型 2 举例 有时，画线词后会跟一些具体的例子，这些例子能帮助学生理解该词的词义。此时常出现的信号词汇有 such as、such ... as、for example、for instance、like、including、especially 等。

【典例】 Certain forms of AI are indeed becoming ubiquitous. For example, algorithms (算法) carry out huge volumes of trading on our financial markets, self-driving cars are appearing on city streets, and our smartphones are translating from one language into another. These systems are sometimes faster and more perceptive than we humans are. But so far that is only true for the specific tasks for which the systems have been designed. That is something that some AI developers are now eager to change. 42.What does the underlined word “ubiquitous”in Paragraph 1 probably mean? A. Enormous in quantity. B. Changeable daily. C.Stable in quality. D. Present everywhere.	解析 根据画线词后的 For example 可知，下文是对画线词所在句的举例：算法帮助人们在金融市场进行大量的交易，自动驾驶汽车出现在城市的街道，智能手机实现不同语言间的转换等。这些例子都是人工智能被广泛应用到生活中不同领域的体现，由此可以推测出，画线词用于形容人工智能的普遍现象。 自主解答 ——
类型 3 重述 作者为了使某一复杂难懂的词或术语的含义更清楚，通常会使用常用的、简明的词或词组对其进行解释，这就是重述。重述部分通过逗号(有时也使用破折号、冒号、分号或括号)与句子的其他部分隔开或用信号词引导。常见的信号词汇有 or、 namely、 that is、 in other words、 that is to say、 to be more exact、 to put in another way 等。
【典例】 Still, 55 percent of Australians have a landline phone at home and only just over a quarter (29%) rely only on their	解析 画线词所在的句子中有破折号，而画线词又位于破折号之前，因此，须特别注意破折号后面的内容，破折号后的内容一般是对上文的进一步解释说明。根据画线词所在句的下文

smartphones, according to a survey (调查). Of those Australians who still have a landline, a third concede that it's not really necessary and they're keeping it as a security blanket — 19 percent say they never use it while a further 13 percent keep it in case of emergencies.I think my home falls into that category. 25.What does the underlined word “concede” in paragraph 3 mean ? A. Admit. B. Argue. C.Remember. D. Remark.	可知，很多人保留座机是为了预防紧急情况，并有一部分人根本不用座机。画线词所在句是说，有三分之一的人承认座机不是必须要有的东西，他们将其作为一种心理安慰。因此 concede 意为“承认”。 自主解答 ____
类型 4 同义词或近义词 有时，在画线单词或短语的上下文会出现与之同义或近义的词汇，它往往暗示了该词或短语的含义，这时就可以根据同义、近义的替代关系推知生词或短语的含义。同义词、近义词常见的信号词汇有 and、 or、 like、 as well、 similarly、 too、 also、 either 等。
【典例】 That includes huge savings in maintenance costs and better protection of railway personnel safety.It is calculated that European railways alone spend approximately 20 billion euros a year on maintenance, including sending maintenance staff, often at night, to inspect and repair the rail infrastructure.That can be dangerous work that could be avoided with drones assisting the crews' efforts. 29.What does “maintenance” underlined in paragraph 3 refer to ?	解析 根据文章选段第一句的句意“那包括大幅节省 maintenance 的费用和更好地保护铁路人员安全”可知，A 项不符合该处语境，故排除；选段第二句两次出现了 maintenance 一词，下文提到了 inspect and repair，由此可以推出，maintenance 的含义就是 inspect and repair。B 项出现在选段最后一句，与 maintenance 关系不大，D 项在选段中未出现，故排除 B、D 两项。 自主解答 ____

A. Personnel safety. B.Assistance from drones. C.Inspection and repair. D.Construction of infrastructure.
类型 5 反义词 有时作者会用表示对比或转折的信号词连接意思相反的两个词或句子，这时就可以根据反义词线索猜测词义。常见的表示对比或反义的信号词汇有(whether ...) or、 unlike、 but、 yet、 however、 while、 although、 nevertheless、 instead、 rather than、 in contrast、 on the contrary、 on the other hand 等。
【典例】 According to a recent study in the Journal of Consumer Research, both the size and consumption habits of our eating companions can influence our food intake. And contrary to existing research that says you should avoid eating with heavier people who order large portions (份), it's the beanpoles with big appetites you really need to avoid. 13.What does the underlined word “beanpoles” in paragraph 1 refer to ?	解析 根据画线词所在句的前半句 And contrary to existing research that says you should avoid eating with heavier people who order large portions 可知，现有的研究认为：你应该避免和体重较重、点大份饭菜的人一起吃饭；后半句认为，你真正应该避免的是 the beanpoles with big appetites。由 contrary to 可推断出，画线词和 heavier people 意义相反。 自主解答 ____

A. Big eaters. B. Overweight persons. C.Picky eaters. D. Tall thin persons.

技法(二) 根据上下文逻辑猜测词义

有时作者并未在文中对某个单词或短语进行明显的解释说明，此时可根据上下文的逻辑关系进行推理，以确定某一复杂难懂的单词或短语的意义。

类型 1 转折关系
【典例】 When the explorers first set foot upon the continent of North America, the skies and lands were alive with an astonishing variety of wildlife.Native Americans had taken care of these precious natural resources wisely.Unfortunately, it took the explorers and the settlers who followed only a few decades to decimate a large part of these resources.Millions of waterfowl (水禽) were killed at the hands of market hunters and a handful of overly ambitious sportsmen.Millions of acres of wetlands were dried to feed and house the ever-increasing populations, greatly reducing waterfowl habitat (栖息地). 29.What does the underlined word “decimate” mean in the first paragraph ? A. Acquire. B. Export. C.Destroy. D. Distribute.	解析 根据选段前两句可知，探险家们第一次踏上北美大陆之前，北美土著人把这里多种多样的野生动物照顾(take care of)得很好。由画线词所在句可知，此处讲述的是不幸的事情，Unfortunately 表示转折关系，再结合下文的描述可猜出此处表达的是，这些探险者和定居者只用了几十年的时间就破坏了这些资源的大部分。由此可推断，decimate 与 take care of 的含义相反。 自主解答 ____
类型 2 对比关系 有时，文中会对两个事物或现象进行对比性的描述，或会出现与生词意思相反的词。因此，学生可以根据句中的对比关系来猜测词义。

【典例】 History grounds us in our roots. History is an important and interesting field of study, and learning the history of our home country can give us a deeper, more meaningful glimpse (一瞥) into our ancestral pasts, and how we got to where we are today. Many people feel like they need a sense of cultural belonging, which is something that studying your roots and being open-minded to the evolution of your culture can provide. 51.The underlined part “where we are today” in Para.2 probably means _____. A. the turning point in our history B.the present state of our nation C.the location of our homeland D.the total area of our country	解析 根据画线部分前的 learning the history of our home country can give us a deeper, more meaningful glimpse (一瞥) into our ancestral pasts 可知, 学习祖国的历史可以让我们更深入、更有意义地了解我们祖先的过去, 下文与其形成对比关系, 即学习历史也可以帮助我们了解我们国家的现在。 自主解答 ____
类型 3 类比关系 作为一种推理方法, 类比关系是指类比各对象之间存在的一种相似性(共同特征), 它通过比较不同对象间的某些相似属性, 从而推出另一属性也可能相似。常见的表示类比关系的信号词汇有 similarly、like、also、just as、as well 等。
【典例】 ...And the story poses an interesting question : why do some people discover new vitality and creativity to the end of their days, while others go to seed long before ?	解析 在本句中, people 与蒸汽机形成隐性类比, 两者的一个共同特征就是“动力, 活力”, 而 run out of 表示“用完, 用尽”。由此可推知, 画线短语的意思是“失去动力”。再联系选段最后一句中的 I'm talking about people who have stopped learning on growing 可知, 作

We've all known people who run out of steam before they reach life's halfway mark.I'm not talking about those who fail to get to the top.We can't all get there.I'm talking about people who have stopped learning on growing because they have adopted the fixed attitudes and opinions that all too often come with passing years. 52.What does the underlined part in Paragraph 3 probably mean ? A. End one's struggle for liberty. B. Waste one's energy taking risks. C.Miss the opportunity to succeed. D. Lose the interest to continue learning.	者谈论的是那些不再学习成长的人。因此，画线短语 run out of steam 指失去学习的动力。 自主解答 ____

很多情况下，我们在阅读理解中遇到的生词是派生词或合成词。根据这些词的前缀、后缀、词根或所构成合成词的意思，熟练运用构词法来判断生词的含义是一种十分快速且有效的阅读技巧。

【典例】 I decided to think up a method of dealing with forbidden fruit. ... My imaginary Grandma's Box worked like magic that spring, and later.Sometimes students would ask me to describe all the things I had in it.Then I would try to remember the different possessions I supposedly had taken away — since I seldom actually kept them.Usually the offender would appear at the end of	解析 根据构词法知识可知,“-er”为后缀,当其与动词组合时,表示“做某事的人或物”; offend 为动词,意为“违反;冒犯”。所以 offender 有“犯规者;违反者”之意。结合上文中出现的 forbidden fruit 以及下文提到的 return the belonging 可推断,画线词所在句表示,通常 the offender 会在放学的时候过来,作者就会把东西归还给他/她。因此, the offender 就是携带“违禁物品”的人。 自主解答 ____

the day, and I would return the belonging. 25.What do the underlined words “the offender” in paragraph 8 refer to ? A. The student's parent. B.The maker of the Grandma's Box. C.The author's grandchild. D.The owner of the forbidden fruit.

技法(四) 根据常识或上下文语境猜测词义

【典例】 Ever since her childhood, Ginni, now 71, has had a deep love for travel.Throughout her career (职业) as a professional dancer, she toured in the UK, but always longed to explore further.When she retired from dancing and her sons eventually flew the nest, she decided it was time to take the plunge. After taking a degree at Chichester University in Related Arts, Ginni began to travel the world, eventually getting work teaching English in Japan and Chile.And it was in Chile she discovered she could get last-minute cheap deals on ships going to Antarctica from the islands off Tierra del Fuego, the southernmost tip of the South American mainland.“I	解析 根据画线词所在段内容可知，主人公 Ginni 从小就对旅行情有独钟，她去过英国，但总是渴望去探索更远的地方，当她从舞蹈行业退休并且她的儿子最终自立门户后，她决定是时候去……。再结合下文所阐述的她拿到学位后去周游世界和去南极洲的经历可推断，take the plunge 的含义类似于“尝试冒险”。 自主解答 ____ just decided I wanted to go,” she says.“I had no idea about what I'd find there and I wasn't nervous. I just wanted to do it.And I wanted to do it alone as I always prefer it that way.” 28.Which of the following best explains “take the plunge” underlined in paragraph 2? A. Try challenging things. B. Take a degree. C.Bring back lost memories. D. Stick to a promise.

Near Mount Everest's peak, the climbers faced a choice: head for the summit, like others had done, or stop to save the injured man.

Daniel Mazur had spent seven hours climbing up the mountain through ice and snow, and now he sensed that success was near. He and his companions were less than three hours away from the spectacular 29, 035-foot summit.

As the men looked out on the snow-covered peaks below, Mazur suddenly saw a flash of bright yellow to his left. On the edge of a cliff was a man sitting cross-legged. Without an oxygen mask, sleeping bag, food or water, there was no reason for him to be alive at 28, 000 feet, and he seemed to know it. He looked up at Mazur.

Almost any experienced climber who's been to Mount Everest knows somebody who didn't make it back. “There are times when you literally have to step over somebody's body to get to the top,” says Mazur.

Near the peak on that clear May morning — a mountaineer's dream, Mazur describes — he and his team members quietly realized they had a choice to make: Should they phone in the man's situation to his group and continue on? Or stay with him, until help arrived?

In the end, Mazur knew, there was only one possible decision to be made. “Luckily,” he says, “everyone made the right one.”

They got the man away from the cliff's edge and helped him back into his snowsuit. With the injured climber secured, Mazur radioed down to high base camp. It was almost noon when a dozen Sherpas finally arrived to help take the man down the mountain.

The man's name is Lincoln Hall. Hall knows he's a lucky man, that he could very well have become the 12th person to die on Everest this year — the deadliest season since the 1996 tragedy. Although his rescue is incredible, it has sparked a debate about climbers who leave behind the sick and injured in pursuit of Everest's grand prize.

Blue sky thinking, most often used in product design and marketing, is a request to eliminate all constraints, and to work on a project free of any restrictions. The problem is that the benefits of working on a blue-sky project are often, but not always, more romance than reality. Constraints are very useful in finding new ideas. The request to “think blue sky” can often lead people into the trap of ignoring seemingly smaller, or simpler ideas, that, if explored, could lead to the best solutions.

It can certainly be fun to think about solving bigger or more open problems. Imagining what you'd do with a 500% larger budget or an extra month of project schedule might yield an insight that transfers back to the actual constraints. But the desire to work “blue sky” reflects a misunderstanding of how constraints often help, rather than hinder, the creative process.

A constraint, which can initially seem frustrating, is an important kind of information. It gives you something to start with, and work against in generating and testing ideas. For example, it's much easier to write a poem that rhymes, than to write one in free verse. The structure of a rhyme provides information to work with and a structure, or shape, to try putting ideas into. Dr. Seuss famously wrote The Cat in The Hat based on a constraint from the publisher to use less than 250 different words.

There are many different kinds of constraints, and the way the constraint is defined can change how useful or not it is in solving a problem. Often it's defining the problem thoughtfully, and working to examine and study the differences of its constraints, that is where the real big insights are found.

Of course having too many constraints, or ones that conflict with each other, can make a problem unsolvable. Sometimes people are asked to do the first rate work on the third rate budget and it'd be unfair to tell them that if they were creative enough they could succeed.

There's a childlike joy that comes with ordering something online — whether it be clothes or kitchen stuff. We sit anxiously refreshing the postal service or express pages to see when our items will arrive, and we become overly excited, hopeful and anxious.

According to Owen O'Kane, a psychologist and writer, even the smallest positive future events can motivate us when we're feeling down — especially during the COVID-19 pandemic, which has been filled with unexpected disappointments. Waiting for a parcel may not just represent an imagined positive future where you can control your needs for a book or a toaster or a shirt, making life feel more manageable, but can also serve as a temporary distraction (分心的事物) from the boring life because it gives you something new to wake up to and get excited about.

However, people went into a frenzy when the postal service announced that its mail delivery would become permanently slower. And then, many became worried about whether their items would arrive on time, appear in a broken state, or simply not live up to their expectations. A delayed package may seem insignificant to some. But for others, getting their hopes up only for them to be thwarted (挫败) can cause anxiety and anger. O'Kane says these reactions are natural, but they are telling about more deep-rooted internal issues in our lives that go beyond the delayed package. It's really symbolic of something bigger, psychologically, of the need to control and the need for everything to be perfect.

It's important to practice self-care and treat yourself with occasional gifts. However, experts caution that comfort shopping is only a temporary fix, which only helps you escape problems temporarily. "Shopping for and receiving an item is stimulating on some level, and also the most passive way to live," O'Kane adds.

语篇解读：本文是一篇说明文。专家认为网购只会带来短暂的慰藉，人们仍需积极地面对生活并采取行动永久地解决问题。

- A. It makes life easy to manage.
- B. It gives us something positive to expect.
- C. It distracts us from a better life.
- D. It helps us avoid unexpected disappointments.

10. What does the underlined phrase "went into a frenzy" in Paragraph 3 probably mean?

- A. Canceled their orders.
- B. Stood still to call for their parcels.
- C. Got into a state of craziness.
- D. Ran into a postal service company.

11. What is O'Kane's attitude toward people's reactions to the delayed package?

- A. Concerned.
- B. Indifferent.
- C. Optimistic.
- D. Positive.

12. What exactly does the writer want to say in the last paragraph?

- A. Find hope in your comfort shopping.
- B. Never order and track something online.
- C. Go shopping for and receiving items occasionally.
- D. Live actively and take action to solve problems for good.
